LOCATION/DESCRIPTION

The subject property is located on the north side of Holderness Road (A165) approximately 2 miles east of Hull city centre. Holderness Road is a major arterial route, receiving a high volume of passing traffic to and from the east of the city centre. The property has prominent frontage with a large surrounding residential catchment.

The two-storey mid-terrace property is of brick construction beneath a pitched concrete tile clad roof. There is a rear single-storey projection of similar specification leading to an enclosed garden. A concrete surfaced forecourt measures to a depth of c.4m.

Internally, the accommodation provides the main sales area with a rear store, staff kitchen and WC. The first floor provides additional storage space separated into 3 rooms. The main sales benefits from a full height shop front secured externally with an electric roller shutter. We understand the property to have mains electric, water and drainage connected.
