LOCATION

Beverley is a historic, attractive and busy market town in the East Riding of Yorkshire, located approximately 10 miles north of Hull. The town has a population in the order of 30,000 persons (2011 census), with further housing development underway primarily to the south eastern side of the town, alongside the town's south-eastern bypass.

More specifically, the property is located on Swinemoor Lane (A1174) approximately 1.5 miles east of Beverley town centre. Swinemoor Lane links Hull Road to the South and A1035 to the north, providing direct links to Beverley Town Centre, Driffield and Hornsea beyond. The immediate area is a hub for various businesses including office users and retailers. A Wikes DIY warehouse and Aldi supermarket are located nearby.
