LOCATION/DESCRIPTION

The town of Grimsby forms part of the larger Grimsby and Cleethorpes conurbation with a population of approximately 88,250. The property is situated on the eastern side of Hainton Avenue, which runs on a north/south axis, connecting the A180 with the A46, forming part of an established retail parade, within a mixed commercial and high density residential area. Surrounding occupiers are both national and local in nature, including Ladbrokes Bookmakers and Today's Local.

The premises comprise a former two-storey dwelling, which has since been converted to provide ground floor sales and first floor storage accommodation, both of which require refurbishment. The ground floor is almost entirely open-plan, with a modern shop front and secured using electrically operated roller shutters. The first floor is accessed from within the main retailing area and provides general ancillary accommodation, but could be converted to provide residential accommodation, subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents and undertaking conversion works.

To the rear, the property benefits from a small garden area, accessible via a communal passageway.
